

The Bishop Strachan School,

FOR THE
HIGHER EDUCATION OF YOUNG LADIES,

Wykeham Hall,

COLLEGE AVENUE,
YONGE STREET,

TORONTO, CANADA.

---

INCORPORATED 1868.

---

GOVERNING BODY:

The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Toronto, President,

AND

A COUNCIL OF CLERGY AND LAITY.

---

Lady Principal, - - Miss Grier.

This establishment was founded in 1867. Its object is the instruction of young ladies in the various secular branches of a liberal education, and also the inculcation of Christian doctrine, as contained in the Bible and the Book of Common Prayer.

The Lady Principal is assisted by an efficient staff of instruction, nineteen in number, and the arrangements for competent teaching in every department, and for the due supervision and moral training of the pupils, as well as for their health and comfort, will be found complete and satisfactory.

Wykeham Hall, formerly the residence of the late Sir J. B. Macaulay, which was first acquired by the school in 1870, and greatly enlarged, is an extensive and handsome building, surrounded by beautiful and secluded grounds, admirably situated for school purposes, and affording ample scope for the exercise and recreation that are so essential for the young.

In addition to the Lady Principal, the present resident staff includes ladies who have distinguished themselves at the University and the Provincial Teachers' examinations, and who have had the advantage of experience in England and on the Continent of Europe.

In the department of Music, besides the accomplished resident teachers, the best musical talent of the city is engaged. Drawing and Painting are also taught by an efficient master as well as by the ladies in residence.

The full course of study is intended to occupy at least six, and in most cases seven years, the Fifth or Lower Senior Class work requiring two years.

The examiners are selected from graduates of the Universities, and the upper classes are taken over a considerable portion of important departments in a university curriculum. Candidates are also received and prepared for the examinations in the Trinity College Course of Study for Women, the particulars of which can be given on application.

Opportunities are thus given for higher culture in the Languages, in English Literature and Composition, Elocution, Science, the Mathematics, and in Art, for those who are found fitted and desirous for such studies.

Simplicity and economy in dress, and moderation in expenditure are enforced. It is the desire of the Lady Principal that pupils should, before leaving home, or during the vacations be provided as far as possible with all necessary wearing apparel, as it is inconvenient that their time and thoughts should be occupied with such matters while at school.

The Religious Instruction is under the charge of the Rev. J. Pearson, a clergyman appointed by the Bishop.

In their efforts to establish and maintain an institution with such objects, and which they believe to be now specially needed, the Council have met with an encouraging success, and they confidently claim the support of their fellow churchmen throughout the country. As there is no desire to make a mere pecuniary profit, the fees are placed on as moderate a scale as is compatible with thorough efficiency in the teaching and an adequate expenditure upon the supplies for the house.
